

Senior Cast Members:

Sam Brunner:

Samantha has performed in 6 shows so far on the Chartiers Valley High School Stage. She is very excited to perform in her final Fall play, You Can't Take It With You, as Gay Wellington. Sam would like to thank this year's directors, Mrs. Panzo and Mr. DiCenzo for all of the time and effort that went in to this show. She would like to thank her friends and family for their love and support as well.

Megan Henderson:

You probably know Megan Henderson as the girl who got the production of You Can't Take It With You for the Fall Play. Megan would like to thank her friends and family for their decision to support her. Although she is going to Pratt University for her senior year, she is still a part of the Chartiers Valley High School community. She would like to thank her friends and family for their love and support as well.

Dec Warner:

This is Dec Warner's 4th and final Fall Play; she is going to miss all the friends she has made over the years she's been involved with CV theater. Next fall, Dec plans on attending Pratt University as a photography major. Outside of theater, you can find Dec taking pictures or hanging out with her homie for life Matt Guerry. Occasionally you'll find Dec professing her undying love for Megan Henderson. Dec would like to thank Mrs. Panzo

Sam Brunner:

Samantha has performed in 6 shows so far on the Chartiers Valley High School Stage. She is very excited to perform in her final Fall play, You Can't Take it With You, as Gay Wellington. Sam would like to thank this year's directors, Mrs. Fanzo and Mr. DiCenzo for all of the time and effort that went in to this show. She would like to thank her friends and family for their love and support as well.

Megan Henderson:

You Can't Take it With You is Megan's second and final Fall Play production; she has also been in Seussical, Footloose, and most recently The Wiz as well as 3 Showcases, bringing her grand total of Chartiers Valley High School stage appearances over the years to 8. This year has been an amazing ride for Megan and the rest of the seniors! #realtalk There is one special snowflake who makes Megan smile more than the word gobbledygook, and that would be the beautiful and perfect Dee Warne. Tossin' it up to Xandra Goldstein for always bein' ratchet and never letting the pretentiousness we share be a bad thing. Also, twerking. Personally, Megan would like to thank both directors, Mrs. Fanzo and Mr. DiCenzo for their dedication, tough love, support, and direction of this year's production. Although she is saddened by the closing of the curtains on her Fall Play career, Megan takes unforgettable memories, amazing friends, and some of the greatest stories she'll ever have to tell with her from the Class of 2013! Megan plans to major in musical theater and media direction/production next fall. Finally Megan would like to thank her friends and family for listening to the scenes, hearing the constant songs, and always being supportive of her...most of the time. She'd especially like to thank her biggest fans-her parents who are two of the most supportive people she's ever known. Baby Megan loves you! Also, I love you more!

Dee Warne:

This is Dee Warne's 4th and final Fall Play; she is going to miss all the friends she has made over the years she's been involved with CV theater. Next fall, Dee plans on attending Pratt University as a photography major. Outside of theater, you can find Dee taking pictures or hanging out with her homie for life Matt Guerry. Occasionally you'll find Dee professing her undying love for Megan Henderson. Dee would like to thank Mrs. Fanzo and Mr. DiCenzo for making her senior show supermegafoxyawesome special!

Kelly Evangelista:

This is Kelly's fourth and final fall play on the CV stage! You may remember her as a kite in The Jungle Book, Ginette in Almost Maine, Fred's Wife/Charwoman/Solicitor in A Christmas Carol, and Penny Sycamore this year in You Can't Take it With You. Kelly is also VP of SADD, Philanthropy Chair of Student Council, PR Liaison of Thespian Society and a member of NHS and the Select Chorus. She would like to thank Mr. DiCenzo and Ms. Fanzo for giving her this wonderful opportunity of playing such a dynamic role this year. She plans to attend either IUP or Waynesburg to pursue a career in nursing. She will miss being a member of the fall play! Kelly would like to end with a shout out to all the seniors: I love you guys! You have made the last four years amazing and I will miss you all so much next year! ☐ ☐

Gavin Calgaro:

Gavin Calgaro is loving his senior year and playing the part of Tony in this year's show! Gavin spent his first two years of high school trolling the high school tech crew, but last year he decided to try his hand at performing. Since then he has played a variety of roles including Fred in A Christmas Carol and Lord High Underling in The Wiz. Next fall, Gavin intends to major in Elementary Education with minors in music and theater arts. In the meantime however, Gavin wants to thank his thespian friends for being ridiculously talented people, Mrs. Fanzo for directing the play, and Mr. Dencenzo for all the help! Without you guys, there's no way we could have pulled this show off!

Rocki Boulis:

Rocki Boulis is a senior at Chartiers Valley High School. She has been in all four years of fall play and has loved every second of it! Freshman year she was a wolf in The Jungle Book, sophomore year she was Gayle in 'Almost Maine', last year she played the role of the ghost of Christmas present in a 'Christmas Carol', and lastly for her final fall play performance she will be playing Essie in this year's current production of 'You can't take it with you'. She would like to thank her wonderful and helpful directors Ms. Fanzo and Erich DiCenzo for a fantastic last fall play memory she will never forget! Also a big thank you to her family and friends for all their love and support they have shown her for the past three years in all her high school performances. Rocki also has been in every spring musical and plans to be in the upcoming production of 9 to 5.

Alexandra Goldstein

Alexandra Goldstein is super excited to be rocking the role of Mrs. Kirby for her third and final CV fall play! Although she may not always admit it, fall play has surely been one Alexandra's most noteworthy experiences in high school. Starting out as Ginette in Almost, Maine and continuing to play Mrs. Cratchit and Rich Woman #1 in Chartiers Valley's best play to date, A Christmas Carol, Alexandra is completing her trifecta with yet another pretentious, maternal role (which she hopes is a pure coincidence and not a typecast). Xandra would like to throw some deuces up to her consecutively-pretentious and always ratchet counter cast mate, Megan Henderson. She would like to give a shoutout to the directors, Mrs. Fanzo and Mr. DiCenzo, on an awesome rookie year. Lastly, Alexandra would like to send out a special thank-you to the class of 2013 for ending these past four years on such a good note, and for being the fiercest group around (even those air signs out there). Upon graduation from The Valley, Alexandra plans to attend a four-year university to major in Anthropology, with hopes of attending medical school thereafter. With that, Alexandra would like to say CV theatre will always remain in her heart despite the miles and years apart, and hopes the audience will enjoy the show!

Matt Guerry:

This is Matthew Guerry's fourth and final feature in a Fall Play on the CV Stage. He'd like to say thanks to his family for sticking by him through it all, and to his friends, the old and the new, for being making up the dysfunctional family he was a part of for these past four productions. With a special shout out to his homedog, Dee Warne, he'd just like to say that the memories made on stage, good or bad, are ones that he will cherish for the rest of his life. Matt plans on attending college in the fall, and looks forward to embarking on whatever new adventure that his life sets him on.

Grace Nowak:

CV theater is one of the things Grace wishes she doesn't have to leave behind, as she has made many true friends over the years. Performing on stage, whether acting or playing music, is a passion she has had for as long as she can remember. In high school, you might have seen Grace in Seussical, Almost, Maine, or A Christmas Carol. Grace is also a first year member of Thespian Society. Although high school is coming to an end, she plans on continuing theater as a minor in college along with majoring in music therapy. Finally, Grace would like to thank her family and friends for supporting her and she hopes everyone finds this show as hilarious as the cast did in rehearsals!

Connor Fleck:

Initially thought to be the Greek God of Tanning, Connor Fleck is a fellow quite invested in the theatre. He's overly fond of his role as Mr. Kirby this year, especially his fabulous and extremely attractive wives, Megan Henderson and Alexandra Goldstein. Connor likes to think of their little family as something of a Sister Wives situation; he loves them equally but in different ways. Although he has severe esophageal issues, it's been said that Connor himself was forged in the fires of Mount Doom, so if you get him super fired up, he breaks out in Elvish hives. This one time in middle school, Connor played Jesus in Godspell, so like he's a religious figure...respect him. Mr. Fleck is in the rare breed of homo sapiens who have contracted Romnodictiosis; A rare disorder which results in instant recollection of every quote either Mitt Romney, Paul Ryan, or really any Republican has ever said. Ever. Connor spends his time reconstructing old rickshaws with his teeth, so his Herculean self can be transported with ease. Connor Elizabeth Fleck: The Man, The Myth, The Legend.

Dom Politi:

This is Dom's first stage role in a show-well first speaking role-he acted as one of Glinda's bodyguards in last year's production of The Wiz. Up until recently, Dom could be found moving sets behind scenes instead of acting, but the rest of the cast is extremely glad he's finally succumbed to the dark side that is being a thespian. Dom has previously helped put on 2 fall play productions, 1 musical, and last year's Showcase, Everlasting Impressions. In the fall, Dom plans to attend Westminster College to study health sciences and compete on the track and field team. Dom would like to thank his friends and family for all their love and support through everything he has done during his high school career!

Austin Pilz:

Austin enjoys things to flash, glow and explode. He would like to thank Mrs. Fanzo for dealing with his nonsense, EricH Dicenzo for keeping him sane during practice and Tom Kovach for helping him with lights when he almost had a meltdown. Austin would like to remind you that food and drinks are not permitted in the auditorium, unless you'd like to stay after and help him clean :)

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS :

First of all, we are SO incredibly proud of you. You are a very talented group and it was a pleasure working with you. This show was quite a challenge and we thank you for all you have put into it. Hold your heads high, as each of you are spectacular!!
