Lastly she would like to thank her parents for always pushing her to be the best Sherri she can be and doesn't know what she would do without their love and support.

Sydney Morgan: This is Sydney's last Fall Play production and it is very bitter sweet. Sydney has participated in fall play since her freshman year and has been the Stage manager for "You Can't Take It With You", "Alice Vs. Wonderland" and finally "The Man that Came to Dinner". She has also participated musical since her freshman year on crew for "The Wiz" and "9 to 5" and has stage managed for "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat". Sydney has danced in showcase since her freshman year as well. When Sydney is not participating in her various activities in the Auditorium she also plays lacrosse. Sydney plans on attending a four year university next fall to major in Public Relations. Finally Sydney would like to thank her parents for driving her to all of our rehearsals and shows, and her many friends she's made throughout the years. And of course she has to thank Ms. Fanzo for being one of the most supportive teachers in Sydney's life, their many late nights spent at the school pulling the show together, dealing with her many crazy antics and always taking her on fun field trips. Enjoy the show!

Emily Palma: Emily Palma is a one of a kind human being who has the amazing ability to communicate with most any wild animal. She has had full conversations with animals both above and below water. Emily has so many great qualities ranging from her great sense of humor to her keen sense of smell. She is happy to have been blessed with the wonderful gifts of singing and acting. She is also considering minoring in theatre and using her talents to entertain others for the rest of her life. Emily would like to thank Ms. Fanzo for giving her the opportunity to perform on stage in the plays, her ma and pa for always supporting her, and Alec Kinslow for putting up with her annoying quirks and loud mouth.
